Today's Readings

First Reading: Isaiah 22:19-23. Because of the reference to the "key of the house of David" in this text, some Fathers saw in it a messianic prophecy, foretelling the removal from power of the leaders of the Chosen People of the Old Testament, and the transfer of that power to Christ, who in turn handed it to Peter as head of the Church, the new Chosen People.

Second Reading: Letter of St. Paul to the Romans 11:33-36: In this reading he offers praise and thanks to God for including everyone in the salvation He offered, first to the Jews, then to the Gentiles.

Gospel: St. Matthew 16:13-20. Jesus, the true Son of God, became man in order to make all men His brothers and co-heirs with Him, to the eternal kingdom. To carry on His mission on earth, He founded the Church on the twelve Apostles. This Church was to be made up of all races from all parts of the world. For this Church, this divinely instituted society of human beings, to carry out its mission of helping all men to reach their eternal kingdom, it was necessary to be sure of the road offered to its members. Today's reading from St. Matthew tells us how Christ provided for this necessity. In making Peter the head of his Church, Christ gave him the power of freedom from error when officially teaching the universal Church. And this gift of infallibility was given to his lawful successors - the Popes. In giving these powers to Peter and to his successors Christ was planning for our needs. He assured us that whatever we were commanded to believe (faith) or to do (morals) would always be what He and his heavenly Father wanted us to believe and to do.

How can we ever thank Christ for these marvelous gifts to his Church, that is, to us? Let us say a fervent: "thank you, Lord; you have foreseen all our needs and provided for them, grant us the grace to do the little part you ask of us in order to continue our progress on the one direct road to heaven."

Church Picnic Next Sunday – September 3

Following is a prayer that would be most appropriate for the coming week:

A Prayer in Preparation for Our Picnic

Lord, we know you love us and have great plans for our parish. But sometimes we are overwhelmed by the thoughts of our future. Show us how to walk forward one day at a time. May we take heart while we search openly for what it is you want us to do. Inspire in us wisdom and understanding to see your vision for our parish and let us respond to whatever you call us to be. Show us your way, Lord!

Are we ready? Many parishioners have been busy doing behind-the-scene jobs preparing for the Picnic for weeks. Being a busy time of the year, others may have let the time slip by and now the day is almost here.

During this last week, be sure to check over the mailing that was sent to all parishioners. Get your raffle tickets ready to turn in, check over the grocery list and purchase the item assigned, do some baking for the Kitchen, Country Store and Cake Wheel, line up your donations for the Auction, and chip in what you can as a cash donation for the Picnic.

Be sure to find your name on the Workers List and/or check your email for a reminder. If your name is not there, call David Schmidt at 281-703-8943 or email him at shinerpicnic1@gmail.com to volunteer for a time slot, or call one of the Chairpersons on the list and volunteer.

We need everyone's support to make our 96th Annual Fall Picnic a success. Working together, and asking God for his blessing on our efforts, we can do it!

Cattle For Picnic Auction: We are happy to announce we have four head of cattle for the Auction. The donors are: Denis & Lori Berger, David & Trish Kapavik, Don & Gina Valis, and Victor & Marionette Kneifel. Many thanks to these donors! Who's next? Call 594-3836. If you have cattle, please consider making a donation. For delivery options for the cattle, please call Darryl Pesek at 293-1497.

Auction Items can be brought to the Meeting Room this week or to the auction stand on Picnic Day.

The Country Store and Cake Wheel are depending on your donations. Please bring your booked or canned goods for these stands to the Picnic grounds as early as possible next Sunday.

The Plant Wheel would welcome your donations of any kind of plants. Please bring to the stand next Sunday.

Desserts for Meals: We offer a sweet of some kind for all plates to-go as well as for the meals served in the main hall. Please plan to bring your sweets as early as possible to the K.C. Hall kitchen or to the Kaspar Pavilion next Sunday. Please cut and wrap the desserts brought to Kaspar Pavilion for the to-go plates.

New This Year - A drive-thru for dropping off cakes and desserts for the meals or the Cake Wheel will be available at the K.C. Park from 8:00 a.m. until 10:30 am. on Picnic Day. Drop off will be located in front of the Dining Hall doors on the auction pavilion side of the building.

Attention: All Parish High School Students - Religious Ed and Catholic School high school students - are urged to check over the Workers List, find your name, or if not on the list, call David Schmidt at 281-703-8943 or email him at shinerpicnic1@gmail.com to volunteer for a time slot.
